

THE SEVILLE JOURNAL

Yes, the show is over. The last performance was given on Saturday night to a well-filled house. Miss Josephine Weaver got the ring for being the most popular young lady of the town. This is the second time for Josephine. A few years ago she a beautiful gift from the Seville Times after receiving the most votes. The ring was a great surprise to her as she did not attend the show on Saturday night. What next to amuse Seville people?

Mr. A. A. Foster got his hand seriously hurt with a rip saw at the planing mill, where he is employed, one day last week. It will be some time before he will be able to use it. He is under the care of Dr. Beach, who has opened an office here.

Are you hungry? Here is something that will interest you. The Ladies' Aid society of the Baptist church will serve their annual harvest dinner Wednesday, Oct. 8, in the church dining room, beginning about 4:30 p. m. Work up a good appetite and attend.

Miss Ethel Wideman of Lakewood, Ohio, was the guest of Mrs. E. G. Cross for the week-end and visited her many friends. Mrs. Wideman attended morning services at the Baptist church and favored the congregation with one of her beautiful solos. We love to hear her sing.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Frazier of Cleveland spent a few days with Mrs. Frazier's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sherm Lee.

Miss Esther V. Dundas, superintendent of nurses at the General hospital of Rochester, Pa., is having a little vacation and is spending it with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Dundas and her sister, Mrs. Elmer Over-dorf. H. G. Dix still has a little hankering for Seville. We see him quite often on the street since he moved to Akron.

Mr. and Mrs. Bub Hosmer spent a few days of last week in Cleveland visiting and shopping. Yes, Dorothy was celebrating her birthday, too.

Miss Cora McElroy spent the week end with her chums in Barborton.

Miss Grace Kelso of Cleveland spent the week-end with friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Carver motored to Cleveland on Saturday, taking their two daughters Vera and Elma up to Western Reserve college, where they are taking a four years' course of study.

Lots of moving this week again. People are taking possession of the properties they bought a few months ago. John O'Donnell is moving to Tiffin; Crofoots are moving in the house they bought on Pleasant street; Wheelers on South Market street; Mr. Smith of Chippewa Lake moved into his new home on High street and Bassett Rayne will move to Wadsworth where he has bought property and so goes it. "Where are we at?"

Guilford township will hold their township Sunday school convention on Sunday afternoon and evening at the Presbyterian church, Seville. Afternoon session at 2:15, evening 7:15. A very strong program is being prepared. Mr. G. E. Carrothers, of the Cleveland public schools, is an old Sunday school man and one who has a great deal to do with Sunday school problems will speak in the afternoon. Mr. B. M. Hastings, an old Seville boy and now residing in Akron, will speak in the evening together with some of his co-workers.

There will be other speakers and good music under the direction of Prof. E. J. Miller. All the Seville churches are uniting and a good attendance is desired and much profit should be derived from the round table discussion.

Mr. Charles Maytham, member of the county committee, will be presiding officer.

The marriage of Miss Cora Evangelina Bell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Bell, to Mr. Jabez Leland Bostwick took place on Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, Sept. 17, at the home of the bride's parents on Liberty street. Rev. R. A. Woodworth, pastor of the Baptist church, officiated. The bride was gown in white georgette with a corsage bouquet of ophelia roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Hallie Bell, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid and wore shell pink georgette with a corsage bouquet of pink roses and maiden hair ferns. Mr. Roy Tanner, of Cleveland, acted as best man. The wedding march (Mendelssohn) was played by Prof. Eddie Miller. The rooms were beautifully decorated with golden rod and clematis vines. Twenty-eight guests attended the wedding. A two course luncheon was served immediately after the ceremony. Covers were laid for seven at the bride's table and the decorations were pink roses and maiden hair ferns. The out of town guests who attended were Mr. and Mrs. John Hall, of Cincinnati, and Mr. Roy Tanner, of Cleveland. Amid a shower of rice and many good wishes the happy couple left in their auto for a two weeks trip, going to different places of interest. Congratulations are heartily extended to Mr. and Mrs. Bostwick.

Now here is the rest of the wedding. After being piloted by their brother-in-laws, Herle Immel and Leonard Easton as far as Akron, they put up for the night (that is they said they were going to) at the Royal hotel in the city of Podunk. We were also told that they were married under an arch made of hop vines. Well, all parties interested in the wedding are strictly prohibitionists but hops are good for the nerves and it takes some nerve to get married. The Baptist missionary circle met with Mrs. Don Crawford on Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Crawford as hostess and Mrs. Ella Gray program leader. Bert Shumaker is able to be about the house on crutches. His friends and neighbors are filling his silo for him this week. Willie Drushel and wife came over from Wooster Saturday and assisted his mother in her garden. Mrs. H. H. Phelps spent a few days of last week in Ashland visiting. Mrs. Emma Drushel and daughter Florence, Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Zigler and children, of Wadsworth, motored to Jeromesville last Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Willie Drushel joined them at Wooster with Mrs. Drushel, son and family. Mrs. Elec Longacre, of Cresline, spent Monday with her friend, Mrs. Emma Drushel. She was on her way to Cleveland. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Renz, of Medina, were callers at the C. E. Swagler home on Tuesday. Mr. Renz has bought out the harness stock of Mr. O'Donnell and moved it to Medina. Mr. and Mrs. Levy Snyder went to the home coming in Medina last Wednesday. Their son, Roland, was in the parade. The P. G. Critz family, of Wadsworth, attended services at the Baptist church last Sunday and spent the day with Mrs. Critz's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Gray. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bodger, of Indiana, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bodger and left here Sunday evening for Berea where they will locate for the present. Mrs. C. E. Swagler and daughter, Elouise, and Mr. Dates Johnson, father of Mrs. Swagler, motored to Cleveland to spend the day with Ensign Johnson, who is on the sick list. Mr. and Mrs. William Becker entertained a bunch of unexpected company from Cleveland over the week end: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Becker and five young people and Mr. Becker's mother, 85 years old, motored from Cleveland. Quite a long trip for the mother but she enjoyed it and stood the trip alright.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Conover and two children of San Jose, Cal., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Widman this week. Mrs. Conover is a niece of Mrs. Widman and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sherm Squires. Mr. and Mrs. Conover have been in New Jersey visiting Mr. Conover's parents and are now on their way home.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hall, of Cincinnati, attended the wedding of Mrs. Hall's sister, Miss Evangeline, Sept. 17.

Mrs. George Morton is spending the week in Mansfield visiting her son Clifford and wife.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wheeler and two sons, Captain Wheeler and Roy Wheeler, and Mrs. Herbert Immel attended the home coming in Medina on Wednesday. Captain Wheeler and brother Roy were in the parade, both boys having been overseas for nearly two years.

Mrs. Fred Regula, of Cleveland, is the guest of her mother-in-law, Mrs. Charles Cook and visiting friends this week.

Mrs. H. A. Brots returned to her home in Burlington, Iowa, after being the guest of Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Brots for a few days.

Subscribe for the Sentinel the newsie paper of Medina county. $1.00 for 52 copies.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Kerr, of Akron, were week end guests at the Albert Shook home.

Mrs. Ed. Steele is on the sick list with a hard cold and a little of the summer flu connected.

Oh, say, did you see the aeroplane pass over Seville on Tuesday morning about 8 o'clock. Now there is something the correspondent missed seeing. Well, there were others who missed it too.

Mrs. Wm. Hosmer and sister, Mrs. Crawford, visited their brother in Waynesburg last week and returned home Saturday evening. Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Campbell attended the funeral of Mrs. Elizabeth Packer at Lodi on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hartzler are assisting in the Oasis restaurant this week. Rev. Sidney Strong pastor of the Queen Ann church of Seattle, Wash., is spending a few days with Seville friends.

Rev. William Noyes, of Canton, China, surprised his aunts, the Misses Noyes with a little visit last week. Rev. Noyes was on his way to Auburn, N. Y., where his wife and children are living. He is having a vacation of a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Simon and two children motored to Cleveland Sunday and spent the day with Mrs. Simon's sister and family, F. H. Brody.

Mrs. W. H. Wheeler and Mrs. Immel were in Cleveland Monday buying more hats. The Wheeler millinery store is doing a fine business. We appreciate a hat store in Seville.

The K. P. lodge fellows had a big time last Friday evening. They had several candidates for the third degree rank. After the business hour a good social time was enjoyed and they had a big feed. About 50 plates were served. A few visitors were present from Medina.

Donald Lowrie has been attending the Y. M. C. A. convention in Detroit the past few days.

Rev. J. C. Elliott and wife are visiting their son, Rev. Carl Elliott and family who are located in Wooster at present.

Miss Viola Cole, of Pasadena, Cal., is visiting friends in Seville for a few days. She has been spending the summer months in Cleveland and is now getting ready to return to her home in California.

M. A. Anderson resigned his position with the C. L. Mattison Co., to take effect soon, and has accepted a position as manager of the Farmers Milling Co., of Wadsworth.

Charles Mattison and friend, Mr. Truesdale, of Youngstown, were visitors of Mr. Mattison's mother, Mrs. Mary Mattison last week Wednesday. The F. M. Sullinger family moved to Barborton last Saturday.

Mrs. Carl Murray returned to her home from her visit to Crestline on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Rechstner are located in the furnished rooms of Mrs. C. L. Daily on Center street.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cole, of Akron, were Sunday guests of Mrs. Cole's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Halliwell.

Presbyterian church, G. H. L. Beeman, pastor. At 10 a. m. Mr. C. M. Earhart, of Columbus, will speak upon prohibition law enforcement and "How to Keep Ohio Dry." In the Sabbath school at 11:10 a special Rally day program will be given, including a missionary dramatization entitled "A Rally Day Strike," presented by eight juniors. The orchestra will furnish music. The township Sunday school convention will be held in this church afternoon and evening. See fuller notice elsewhere. Christian endeavor, 6:15, topic, "The Christian Athlete and his Training." 1 Cor. 9:19-27, leader Secretary Donald A. Lowrie.

The Guilford township Sunday school convention will be held in the Presbyterian church, Seville, Sunday afternoon and evening, Sept. 28. Afternoon session at 2, evening at 7:30. There will be good speakers, live discussions, fine music. A large union choir will lead the singing. Mrs. LeRoy Foster will give a solo in the afternoon. The Presbyterian orchestra will play. Everybody interested in Sunday school work should be there.

Rev. and Mrs. J. C. Elliott have returned from Alma, Mich.

Rev. G. H. L. Beeman and S. R. Dundas attended the meeting of Cleveland Presbytery on the Lake near Willoughby last week. They report a very interesting session. Mr. Beeman was elected one of the sixteen ministerial delegates to the Synod which meets in Athens Oct. 14.

Mrs. G. H. L. Beeman went to Wooster Wednesday to visit her daughter, Mrs. E. E. Cole.

The Women's Missionary society of the Presbyterian church held a picnic at the home of the Noyes sisters last Friday. Seventy-five persons were present. There was an interesting program and a most elegant picnic supper indoors. Rev. W. D. Noyes, of Canton, China, a missionary, was present. Mr. Noyes is full of the Japan-Korea and Shantung questions and has some very decided views about them. Mr. Noyes will spend part of the winter in New York.

The ladies class of the Presbyterian Sunday school taught by Mrs. Beeman, will have a business meeting and social at the home of Mrs. Earl Day Friday evening of this week at 7:30. Full attendance is requested.

In a letter received from Mrs. Gardner she stated that there would be services at the M. E. church next Sunday, Sept. 28. Rev. Gardner will send a supply. Morning services at 10 o'clock, Sunday school following.

BURBANK EXCITED OVER THREE STRANGERS

Burbank officials were excited for a time Saturday afternoon when three strangers entered the place. Suspicion that the men were bank robbers and may have been connected with a recent Cleveland robbery became current.

The men proved to be new oil men in that field, according to a telephone message to the sheriff's office.
